GRAPHIC PUBLICATIONS

HIGH STUDENTS FORMAT

FOR GRAPHIC PUBLICATIONS, TRANSFORM YOUR RESEARCH INTO THE GRAPHIC FORMAT, ADHERING TO THE SPECIFIED GUIDELINES.

FOR FURTHER INQUIRIES

HIGH-G

The Academic Times Journal graphic publications for the High Graphic (High-G) take up to a full-page leaflet in the High Graphic publication.

RESEARCH AND AUTHORS PROFILE

- ✓ Title
- ✓ Author(s)

- Name(s), Passport Picture

- Program offering

- Name of SHS

- Supervised by: (Required)

- Include a brief author biography (50–100 words).

- ✓ Financed by: optional

1.1) INTRODUCTION

- ✓ Purpose of your article
- ✓ Scope of your article
- ✓ How did you gather data for your article
- ✓ Importance of your article

1.2) RESEARCH BODY

1.3) Presentation of results and findings using graphics such as diagrams, charts, and tables (Consult your IT Lecturer or Teachers with knowledge in graphic presentation for assistance)

   1.4) Discuss your findings

1.3) CONCLUSION

   1.4) Bullet points the following:

- ❖ Discuss the implications (it could be positive or negative) of your findings
- ❖ Conclusion on key findings
- ❖ Total references

FORMATTING STYLE

Below is the High G's guideline:

2.1)   FORMATTING GUIDELINES

- ✓ Document Format: Microsoft Word (.docx) or PDF.

- ✓ Font: Times New Roman, 12pt.

- ✓ Line Spacing: 1.5 lines.

- ✓ Margins: 1 inch on all sides.

- ✓ Alignment: Justified text.

- ✓ Headings: Clear hierarchy (e.g., H1, H2, H3).

- ✓ Figures and Tables: Numbered sequentially, with captions below (figures) or above (tables).

2.2)   VISUAL ELEMENTS

- ✓ Use high-resolution images (300 dpi minimum).

- ✓ Ensure charts and graphs are labeled and easy to read.

- ✓ Avoid cluttered visuals.